MDM&C Attorney Cecylia K. Hahn
Named to NJLJ 2017 “New Leaders Of The Bar”

MORRISTOWN, NJ – April 28, 2017 – McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP (“MDM&C” or “the Firm”) today announced that attorney Cecylia K. Hahn was named to this year’s New Jersey Law Journal “New Leaders of the Bar” list (formerly called “40 Under 40”). This listing features 36 lawyers that represent the future of the legal profession in New Jersey. Their practices and backgrounds are varied, but each shows an impressive combination of accomplishment and promise. After careful review of voluminous submissions by their editorial department and a distinguished panel of outside professionals, Cecylia was chosen to receive this special recognition.

Ms. Hahn graduated, with honors, from The College of New Jersey in 2004 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminology and Justice Studies and a minor in French. She received a Juris Doctorate, cum laude, from Rutgers University School of Law - Newark in 2010. During law school Ms. Hahn was a member of the Moot Court Board and the Business Law Journal. She was awarded best brief following the 2009 Nathan Baker Mock Trial Competition.

Prior to attending law school, Ms. Hahn worked as a paralegal for Marie-Ann Greenberg, Esq., Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Trustee. Before joining the Firm, she served as a law clerk to the Honorable Peter E. Doyne, Assignment Judge, Superior Court of New Jersey, Bergen County, for the 2010-2011 term.

Ms. Hahn is admitted to practice law in the States of New Jersey and New York as well as the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. Ms. Hahn concentrates her practice in the area of healthcare law. She is a member of the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, and the Justice Morris Pashman Inns of Court.
