MDM&C Expands Regional Coverage with Office in Rochester, New York

Expansion Brings Firm's Total Number of Locations to 12, Covering 7 States

MORRISTOWN, NJ – March 9, 2015 – McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, LLP (“MDM&C” or “the Firm”) today announced the opening of an office in Rochester, New York, further expanding its coverage of the Northeast, and bringing the firm’s total number of physical locations to 12, in 7 states. Last August, the Firm opened an office in Tinton Falls, New Jersey.

The initial member of the Firm’s Rochester office is Theodore (“Ted”) M. Baum, who recently joined MDM&C as a partner, and has extensive experience representing clients in contract drafting and disputes in the construction and surety industries, as well as defense of damage and personal injury claims arising from construction projects. Mr. Baum currently serves on the board of the Greater Rochester Chapter of the Construction Financial Management Association, and is a Vice-Chair of the Fidelity & Surety Law Committee of the Tort, Trial, and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association. He is a graduate of the University of Rochester University and Albany Law School of Union University.

“Our Rochester office,” according to Managing Partner, Edward B. Deutsch, “will provide New York State’s 3rd most populous city with access to MDM&C’s 300 attorneys, and our deep expertise across a broad range of industries. We believe the economic health of the Western and Central New York regions will continue to improve over the coming decade, and we are positioned to help drive that growth.”

The office location is 920 Bausch & Lomb Place, Rochester, New York 14604, and its main number is (585) 623-4290. Mr. Baum can also be contacted at tbaum@mdmc-law.com.
