Curriculum Vitae

RYAN J. MURPHY focuses his practice on the defense of complex litigation matters, particularly those involving catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death, including in automobile and trucking negligence, product liability, and premises liability cases. His expertise also extends to handling construction defect matters, insurance coverage issues, commercial disputes, fraud, subrogation and recovery, and general liability litigation cases. He is adept at defending corporate entities and individuals in high-stakes litigation.

Mr. Murphy has extensive litigation experience in the state and federal courts of both Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He is licensed to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and admitted to the United States District Courts in both New Jersey and the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Prior to joining the Firm, he honed his skills as an Associate at a regional insurance defense law firm, focusing on automobile negligence, premises liability, construction defect, and workers' compensation cases.

Upon graduating from Rutgers University School of Law-Camden, Mr. Murphy served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Michael J. Donohue, J.S.C. (Ret.), in the Criminal Division of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Cape May County. He also mediated civil cases in the Special Civil Part. His legal education was distinguished by his role as Lead Notes Editor of the Rutgers Journal of Law and Religion and his work as a student attorney in the Rutgers Law School Advanced Civil Practice Clinic. He also interned with the Honorable Jean K. FitzSimon (Ret.) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Murphy holds a B.A. in History and Politics from Ursinus College, where he was a goalkeeper for the Men's Soccer team, served on the leadership council, and received multiple Centennial Conference awards.

Mr. Murphy is Of Counsel in the Firm's Litigation and Insurance Services Practice Group. He also currently serves on the Executive Committee of the Young Lawyers Division of the Philadelphia Bar Association.
